

SERVICES TO SUPPORT CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S EMOTIONAL HEALTH AND WELL-BEING

Getting Advice

Many children, young people and families just need advice and support to improve self-care during the current pandemic.

The website Howareyoufeeling.org.uk has been developed in partnership with young people and parents as a trusted source of information and advice on emotional health and well-being.

The website has sections for young people, for parents and for professionals working with children, young people and families. The site is regularly updated with useful tips on a range of topics e.g. managing stress and anxiety, improving sleep etc.

It also provides information on how to access a wide range of services who can support the emotional health and wellbeing of Children, Young People and Families should they need to in the future.

Getting Help / Getting More Help

HeadStart Hull

HeadStart Hull Early Help services for young people and parents are currently delivering adapted services online and by phone and text.

A contingency delivery plan has been shared with all schools and community partners.

They will resume face-to-face work when the situation progresses and the guidance allows. The majority of services continue to take referrals via the checklist however, potential referrers are encouraged to ring the service direct to discuss first. All services work with young people aged 10-16 except Mind Counselling which works with 10-19 and Kids parenting support which works with parents of 5-16 year olds with additional needs. HCC parenting also supports parents of children aged 5-16 as part of the wider early help offer.

Contact details for services can be found here or by visiting www.howareyoufeeling.org.uk

Health Visiting and School Nursing

The Health visiting and School Nursing offer to the 5-19 population remains the same as pre -covid. Health visitors and school nurses are responding to all calls and referrals from service users and other agencies using the same process of triage and allocation for Health Needs Assessment. The work is being done remotely or, if essential, face to face. The service also offers virtual and face to face pop ins (as school allow).
